Civil Air Patrol

Fullerton, CA Squadron #40

Citizens Serving Communities....Above & Beyond

Everyday Heroes

The Civil Air Patrol was founded on December 1st, 1941 (a week before the bombing of Pearl Harbor) by citizens concerned about the defense of America's coastline. The first group began with 1 newspaper editor, and the Governor of New Jersey. 150,000 citizens joined, and many of their lives were lost in the war, they flew more than 500,000 hours, were credited for sinking 2 enemy submarines and rescued hundreds of crashed survivors during WWII.

Today's the Civil Air Patrol is a 100% volunteer auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force, has approximately 56,000 members, in 1600 squadrons across 50 states.

A 501(c)(3) Organization,
by an act of Congress
with 3 Primary Missions
